Awana Awards Night

Sunday, May 6 at 6:00 p.m.

Children from three years up through junior high learn Bible verses and have fun in the Awana program on Sunday nights during the school year. Their hard work will be rewarded during Awana Awards Night.

Fine Arts Concert: Symphony of the Holocaust

Friday, May 11 at 7:00 p.m.

Shony Alex Braun was a renowned composer and concert violinist and Holocaust survivor. International Baptist College and Seminary will tell his story at the this year's Fine Arts Concert featuring guest violinist Mrs. Tessa Ball and the IBCS choir and Chamber Singers.

Memorial Day BBQs

Sunday, May 27

There will be no evening service on May 27; instead, each Adult Bible Fellowship will have a backyard barbecue in celebration of Memorial Day.

Summer Enrichment

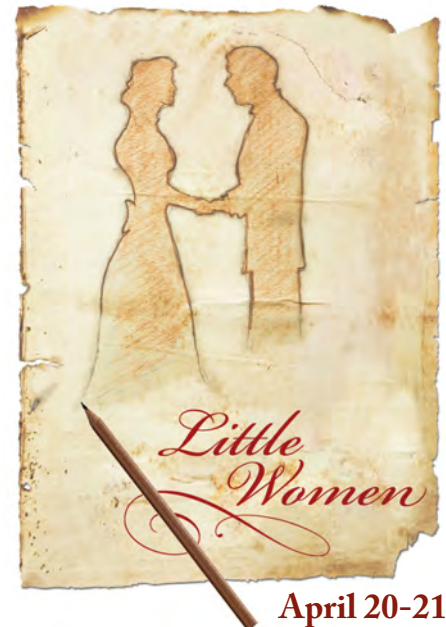

May 29 through August 10

Children ages 5-13 attending Tri-City's summer day camp will enjoy educational activities such as field trips to Big Surf, the Arizona Science Center, Makutu's Island and other destinations. Academic enrichment includes math, reading, spelling, grammar and computer skills.

FBFI Conference

Tuesday through Thursday, June 12-14

Tri-City is excited to host the 92nd Annual Fellowship of the Fundamental Baptist Fellowship International. This conference isn't just for those in full-time ministry. Lay people will also be blessed by the workshops and sessions. If you can't commit to the entire conference, plan to come to the evening sessions which are open to everyone! We will have a combined choir and orchestra from area churches and hear from outstanding speakers Evangelist Steve Pettit on Tuesday night and Dr. Mark Minnick on Wednesday night.
